SCENES AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

Democrats in Power Refuse to Yield the Assembly Chamber to a Meeting for the Choice of a New State Senator—Senate Refuses to Take Action—Democratic Legislative Caucuses—Republican Organization of Both Houses.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 11.—In the special message sent to the Legislature today Governor Griggs urged upon the people of the State the great importance of the election to the Senate of a successor to Senator Sewell, whose term of office will expire March 4, 1899, and he also urged upon the Legislature the necessity of such legislation as would prevent the recurrence of a political outrage.

The Democratic members were here at 9:30 o'clock, thinking the agent of Tracy would be on hand to open the doors. As neglect to do so was duly noted and commented upon by the party press. Democratic Senators and Assemblymen from this section, to the number of about fifty, met in caucus at the Democratic State headquarters, and then went over to the State House in a body. Governor Griggs sent to Mayor Abel Pearson, of Hoboken, a communication in which he requested the Mayor to call a meeting of the citizens of Hoboken to take action upon the death of Senator Sewell, and to adopt resolutions of condolence to be forwarded to the family of the deceased. Governor Griggs also sent a communication to the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Hudson county, requesting that body to take similar action.

Elizabeth, N. J., Jan. 11.—[Special.]—Public interest in the State Democratic senatorial situation was very much intensified today by the filing of the answer of John R. Kelly to the petition of Charles H. A. Schlosser for a recount of the votes. The answer is a remarkable document, containing twenty-nine pages of closely typewritten matter. This alleges that the Democratic majority in Union county was 1,000 instead of 1,200, as declared by the Board of Canvassers, and that the Republican majority in Hudson county was 1,000 instead of 1,200, as declared by the Board of Canvassers.
